

A civil action may be brought in—

(1) a judicial district in which any defendant resides, if all defendants are residents of the State in which the district is located;

(2) a judicial district in which a substantial part of the events or omissions giving rise to the claim occurred, or a substantial part of property that is the subject of the action is situated; or

(3) if there is no district in which an action may otherwise be brought as provided in this section, any judicial district in which any defendant is subject to the court's personal jurisdiction with respect to such action.

28 U.S.C. § 1391(b)(1)-(3). As set forth above, while Plaintiff at one point mentions an address change to Tennessee in his filing with this Court, it is apparent that most, if not all, of the events giving rise to the filing occurred in the Northern District of New York, which is where Broome County, New York, is located. 28 U.S.C. § 112(a). Accordingly, this Court is not a proper venue for this action, and the United States District Court for the Northern District of New York is the proper venue for this action. As this Court may transfer a civil action to any district or division where it could have been filed originally “in the interest of justice,” 28 U.S.C. § 1406(a), the Clerk will be DIRECTED to transfer this action to that Court, and to close this Court's file.

AN APPROPRIATE JUDGMENT ORDER WILL ENTER.

SO ORDERED.
